

Brief Profile of Pooran Japee

Pooran is a businessman by profession, and runs a retail trade in electrical items at Coimbatore. An amateur singer and keen lover of music, back in 2010, he got an opportunity to sing in public and has not looked back since. Through sheer hard work and god given talent, he has developed his singing prowess and is particularly adept at rendering Kishore Kumar's songs. Philanthropy and animal welfare are close to his heart, and he makes it a point to donate all the income he receives through his public performances to charity hospitals, education for the poor and for animal welfare.

With just one karaoke track four years back, Pooran now has a repertoire of over 3,000 plus tracks and has performed hundreds of public concerts across Mumbai, Chennai, Bangalore, Delhi and of course his home town, Coimbatore. Adding to his remarkable ability to sing Kishore's everlasting melodies, he is equally at ease with popular numbers by Mukesh, Rafi and Hemant.

Fondly called as "Kovai Kishore" by Padma Bhushan Dr. Shri. S.P Balasubramanian, he was asked to sing along with the legend on stage in 2013.

Pooran has his own YouTube channel, Pooran Japee, where he uploads some of his popular renditions.
